“I was impressed by Mint Lane's toughness and courage, sometimes when a horse leads they have nothing left, but Mint Lane kept on fighting and that was great to see. Mint Lane was a genuine racehorse who had speed and talent to put away his opposition. He was second to highly regarded Casino Drive in the Peter Pan Stakes-G2 and then won the Postponed Stakes L. and Dwyer Stakes-G2 very easily, unfortunately in his next start, the Jim Dandy Stakes-G2 he injured his hind fetlock putting an end to a planned start in the Travers Stakes-G1.”

“Mint Lane is a very handsome individual with few markings, beautiful balance and intelligent head. His family goes back to the foundation mare Kamar. I think he has every licence to be an excellent stallion prospect and would encourage breeders to use him, mostly for his natural talent, courage, handsome looks and foundation family.”
